

The Senior Class of 1952 proudly presents the

CORINTHIAN,

a yearbook commemorating all the happy, carefree days spent at Corinth-Holders High School. We sincerely hope that you enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed compiling and publishing it. In it we include:

JOHNSTON COUNTY HERITAGE CENTER SMITHFIELD, N.C.

To our principal who has a helping hand and a friendly smile for everyone from the first grade through the Senior Class, we wish to say "thanks" for everything he has done for us, for the school, and for the community.

As we go out from Corinth-Holders, we shall take with us fond memories of two people, who have rendered twenty-seven years of faithful service to our school, and so it is with deep love and appreciation that we dedicate the 1952 Corinthian to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyette.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Our class history began back in 1940 when we, demure little children with lunch boxes clutched tightly in our hands, entered school for the first time. Frightened by the newness of it all, we did not realize what changes would occur in our lives during the twelve years to follow. After a short while we adjusted to this life and had many happy years together. The highlights of these first eight years were Christmas parties and picnics which greatly lightened the work.

September of 1948 marked the beginning of those "real" years, for it was then that we entered high school. It was especially nice because there were sixty-one members of our class composed of those who had been at Corinth-Holders all the time and some from Archer's Lodge. We felt like one big happy family under the leadership of Miss Dulin and Mr. Shaver. Naturally we experienced the usual hardships that freshmen must endure, but we became sophomores in spite of it all. Mr. Shaver and Mrs. Gainey were our sponsors that second year in high school. We still were of little importance, but we did have some of our girls selected to serve as waitresses for the Junior-Senior banquet.

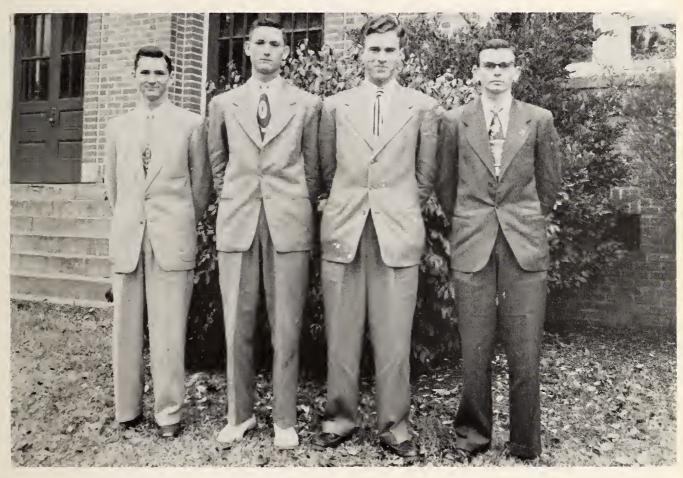

When we became Juniors, Mrs. Jenkins was our sponsor. We were really gaining prestige by this time. We thoroughly enjoyed presenting a class play "Cheerio My Deario." We entered — and won, mind you — a magazine campaign. Then came the truly great event of the year. We entertained the Seniors at a banquet carrying out the theme of a gypsy camp.

After a very short summer, we became Seniors — that position for which we had worked and dreamed for so long. Into nine short months under the leadership of Miss Sadler we packed many happy events including publishing an annual, selecting and receiving class rings, presenting a class play, selecting invitations and calling cards, attending a banquet at which the Juniors entertained us, attending several class parties, preparing for class night and graduation, sponsoring a barbecue supper, and finally making plans for a trip to Washington to mark the end of twelve happy years together.

CLASS PROPHECY

As two more contestants came up to the mike to be interviewed for my radio program, I recognized them as Mr. and Mrs. David Wilder. Mrs. Wilder is the former Eleanor Fowler. David and his neat little wife are the owners of Wilder's Grocery, located about three miles south of Corinth-Holders. After seeing these classmates I began wondering what happened to the rest of the class. Here is some information I received:

Keven Hinton is now one of the main stars on the Army football team. Although Harrison Robertson wanted to be on the main Army team, he didn't quite make it; he is, however, the waterboy—it takes time!

Sadie Bailey and Harold Brown have taken the places of Fred Astaire and Betty Hutton in the movie "Let's Dance." Faye Hocutt won the title of Skating Queen after many years of hard practice.

Don Bunn and James Upchurch made such good school bus drivers that they are now employed by Carolina Trailways.

Pauline Carroll is designing her original creations at Jean's dress shop. The designs are modeled by Phyllis Barnes.

Lunell Wilder is receptionist in the law office of Jimmy Narron.

Millard Hinnant is Hotel Clerk at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh.

Ronney Godwin is teaching French at Corinth-Holders High School. He took a trip to France and acquired a wonderful French accent.

Annettie Barham is employed at The First National Bank in Raleigh and Doris Strickland is cashier at the S &W Cafeteria. Estelle Narron is a stenographer with the Durham Life Insurance Co. Laura Faye Garner and Shirley Sanderford are salesladies in Hudson-Belk's Department Store.

Seley Margaret Temple is making a successful preacher's wife.

Garner Creech, William Keller, and Odell Creech have entered their cars in the Stock Car Race which will be held at Dillon, S. C.

Charles Congleton and his wife, the former Shirley High, made top sales in the tobacco warehouse at Wendell when they sold the crop raised on their farm.

Winning the title of Miss America did not change the pleasing personality of Nell Renfrow.

Pat Johnson is secretary and bookkeeper at Gill's Motor Company in Zebulon. Joyce Eason is owner of a new restaurant in Raleigh. Magaline Horton is her cashier. Mamie Ruth Price and Earline Raper are doing typing work in the Revenue Building. Dorothy Nell Driver has become a well-known seamstress and is expecting to put in a Sewing Center for girls who want to learn to sew.

Milton Parrish and Lannie Crocker attended college and are now doing very nicely in business. Eloise Congleton has become an efficient secretary.

Bobby Hinton is now running his Daddy's store at Dixie. Jimmie Murphy and Ronald Fuller have opened a new department store in Clayton. They say business is really buzzing! Harold Hocutt has his own grocery store in Wendell. Wallace Fuller and Charles Curtis are his most important clerks.

Bobby Michael has gone into business selling Jeep Stationwagons. Another member, I discovered, had gone into the car business. James Strickland is a salesman of O. K. Henderson's Motor Company.

Dorena Richardson is making a grand housewife.

Thomas Johnson and Everette Crocker have suddenly become interested in science. They are trying to grow mushrooms in the shape of suspenders.

Hearing from my classmates and their different occupations made me feel years younger and my mind was at ease once more. This gave me brighter hopes for the future and new ideas for my radio program.

CLASS POEM

Sadness plays on our heartstrings Now as we say goodbye To all we've known and had and loved At dear old Corinth-High.

For twelve long years, and some for more We've come here every day
To learn to work or just to play
In the little schoolhouse so gay.

At times it seemed a bit unfair For those around us to fuss But now we see through a darkened glass That it was just a must.

As each of us goes out from here We wish to leave behind The long lived memory of our day And our happy thoughts so kind.

Now, as we leave our place in school With jobs in the world to do May God grant power, strength, and courage Sufficient to carry us through.

> Shirley High Class Poet

CLASS SONG

Corinth-Holders, Corinth-Holders, They have named you.

You're the school whose spirit Lives within our heart.

Now, with sorrow and much sadness We must leave you,

From your dear protecting wings Now we must part.

We shall ever sing your praises, Dear old Corinth,

For within your lengthy halls We got our start.

All our teachers and our classmates We'll remember,

How we love them, How we'll miss them.

Pushing onward, pushing upward, Corinth-Holders.

You're our Guiding Star, the one We hold apart.

GRADUATION

oday we are printers of the yearbook of your school.

Tomorrow as you seek your future in the professions, industry and commerce we at Paragon hope to serve you with the essential Printing and Lithography you will need in the pursuit of your career,

Many of our best customers came to us through friendships formed around the annual planning table or from former grads like yourself who first saw our work in their annual.
